POWHATAN COUNTY ANNOUNCES

Mabel's Espresso Bakery Café Expanded Relocation in Powhatan

Powhatan County, VA – Powhatan County Economic Development would like announce the relocation and opening of Mabel's Espresso Bakery Café. Richmond Times Dispatch's 2018 Best Hidden Gem Winner with iconic milkshakes is making a move in Powhatan to a larger location in the South Creek One shopping center on the eastern side of Powhatan at 1800 A South Creek One. Their doors will reopen to the public on Monday, September 30th with a focus on 'Craft Burgers and Crazy Shakes'. The café will continue to offer lunch and dinner but will discontinue their breakfast menu. The opening day will include prizes such as free crazy shakes for a year, free burgers for a year and drawings and swag for the first customers upon opening.

The cafe's new space in South Creek will be expanded to around 3,000 sq. ft. with seating for 64 guests throughout an open concept layout which will include more room for food and crazy shake production. There will be a grand opening celebration on November 5th with a menu addition that will have a new crowd of milkshake lovers flocking to the café for their shakes. The new location will also have new hours from 10 am - 9:30 pm (Monday –Thursday) and 10 am - 10 pm (Friday & Saturday).
